

IUBMB symposium

Career development of female researchers in the life sciences

June 21 (Wed), 2006 18:00 ~ 20:30
Kyoto Takaraga-ike Prince Hotel (Room: Takasago)

Opening remarks: Tasuku Honjo

(Kyoto University, President of the 20th IUBMB)

Lectures of Invited Speakers:

Dr. Noriko Osumi (Tohoku University)

Woman Scientists in Japan: Their Situation and Their Goals

Dr. Carol Carter (Stony Brook University, N.Y. USA)

It's About Us: Achieving Gender Equity Through Bootstrap Initiatives

Dr. Akiko Tsugawa (Tokyo Medical and Dental University)

Let's take science and technology career! –You can do anything–

Dr. Thomas Bureau (McGill University, Montreal, Canada)

Canadian Women in Science: Achievements, Obstacles and Challenges

A message from Dr. Tamiko Kano-Sueoka (University of Colorado, Boulder)
Greetings from Boulder, Colorado!

Panel Discussion : chaired by Dr. Ikue Mori (Nagoya University)

by Drs. Yasushi Hiromi, Noriko Osumi, Carol Carter, Akiko Tsugawa, Thomas Bureau.

Organizers:

Noriko Osumi (Tohoku Univ.)

Hisako Ohtsubo (Univ. Tokyo)

Yukiko Gotoh (Univ. Tokyo)

Supported by:
The Molecular Biology Society of Japan
The Japanese Biochemical Society
EPMEWSE

Accompanying children
welcome!